Based on what you hear in the news today and what the “average person” believes, classify each of these as Myth or Fact by writing M or F next to each one:

1. Europeans and Arabs do not share common values.
2. In a jihad, anyone who is not Muslim should be killed.
3. Muslims and Jews can never work together and get along.
4. People care for their own kind; they do not risk their own lives to help others who are not their own ethnic group or religion.
5. European countries would never be dependent on African countries.
6. People from different religions can put their theological differences aside and admire one another.
7. A city in the United States would not be named after someone who waged jihad against Europeans.
8. In your opinion, what motivates people in history the most: (circle one)
